Understanding Yourself to Lead Others More Effectively

Self-Awareness for Efffective Leadership Recognizing your own strengths and skills to further develop is a key foundation for understanding the behaviour of others and leading them successfully. Based on Carl Jung`s theory of psychological types, the persolog® Behavioral Profile provides valuable insights into why people are inclined to respond in particular ways and why some individuals excel at specific challenges more than others. By leveraging these insights, you can broadnyour leadership effectiveness, capitalize on your natural strengths, and lead and develop team members in ways that align with their individual talents and preerences.
